Driving

Run a red light
Driving instructor
Pull to the curb
Brake
Flat tire

Hey? What's up?

Good! You? So, how did your driving test go?

What? You haven't heard?!

No, what happened?

The whole town knows! So... I got there a bit late.

How late?

Like 20 minutes, so my driving instructor was already mad at me... I was so nervous, I promise, I was shaking the whole time... Anyway, I get in the car and things seemed to be going fine until...

Until what?

Until I ran a red light...

Agh!

Wait... That's not the worst part! My driving instructor told me to pull to the curb and I tried but... for some reason, I couldn't brake! I don't know why! There must have been something wrong with the car... My instructor kept shouting at me and that only made me more nervous! After 30 seconds of pure panic, the car finally stopped.

Oh my goodness, so in the end you were able to brake?

Not exactly... There was a piece of glass on the road and I got a flat tire!

What a story! So you didn't pass, uh?

I did, actually. My instructor said he never wanted to see me again so he let me pass!

Run a red light - Things seemed to be going fine until I ran a red light...

- If you are approaching a traffic light and then run a red light, do you stop or do you keep going?
- What are the consequences of running a red light?
- Have you ever run a red light?

Driving instructor - My driving instructor told me to pull to the curb.

- Where does a driving instructor sit? In the front seat next to you or in the back?
- Can a friend or a relative be considered a driving instructor?
- Did you have one or multiple driving instructors? Did you like them?

Pull to the curb - My driving instructor told me to pull to the curb.

- If you pull to the curb, do you get closer to the side of the road or do you drive towards the center of the road?
- When pulling to the curb, do you need to do it slowly or fast?
- Have you ever hit the curb when pulling to the curb?

Brake - For some reason, I couldn't brake!

- If you are driving and then brake, will your car's speed increase or decrease?
- Which is usually recommended? Braking gradually in order to stop or stopping suddenly?
- Do you think you brake smoothly when driving?

Flat tire - There was a piece of glass on the road and I got a flat tire!

- What materials are car tires usually made of?
- How many tires do cars have?
- If you have a flat tire, is it because there is too much air in it or not enough air?
- What can cause a flat tire?
- If it happened? Would you know what to do in case you got a flat tire?
